[A.R. Frey + E. Froissard were the subjects of a dispute with the Chapmans which this lawyer was helping them resolve.]

[Includes a letter from the Customs Office of New York stating that A.R. Frey, who worked there, was not associated with Froissard's business in any way.]

CUSTOMS SERVICE,
OFFICE OF THE COLLECTOR,

NEW YORK, N. Y.,

July 28, 1903.

Mr. Henry Chapman,
1348 Pine Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of July 22, further in reference to your claim against one Frossard, in which you state that Mr. A. R. Frey, a clerk in the Seventh Division of this office, was a partner of Frossard.

I beg to state that Mr. Frey positively denies he is a partner of Frossard, or is carrying on his business, or that he is in any way responsible for Frossard's indebtedness to your sons' firm. The claim which has been made against Mr. Frey is, I understand, on the part of your sons who carry on the business as numismatists. Mr. Frey states that their attorney, a lawyer of this city, who, of course, is familiar with all the facts, has never made any claim against him (Frey) or stated that he was involved in the transaction in any way.

Therefore, in the absence of any proof, and in the face of his positive denial, I do not see that I can, with propriety, take any action in the matter.

Yours respectfully,

N. N. Brewster

Dear Sirs:

I am sorry I have no

news to report you in the Frossard matter.

As I wrote

you, the attachment availed us nothing - and the Sheriff of Lancaster Co. reports that the defendant was not at Round Lake.
Several weeks ago, I personally was at Round Lake and verified what the Sheriff had reported.

My best information at present is that Frossard is somewhere in Texas. and I am endeavoring to get his address by stratagem.

Very sincerely yours

NEW YORK,

Aug. 31, 1903

Mr. Henry Chapman.

1341 Pine St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 29th inst. with enclosure duly recd. I still think we shall be able to collect. but it may take a little time. When I locate Frossard, as I surely will, I shall proceed to make it pretty warm for him.

I return herewith letter from the Collector of the Port of New York. My entire proceeding in the Court was on the theory that the purchaser was Frossard and that Frey was an agent - and I used an affidavit made by the latter. Under the circumstances, therefore,
Mr. Frey can easily clear his skirts: you know
I advised you that I did not consider Mr. Frey legally responsible for the debt because he did not guarantee the debt in writing - which is an absolute necessity in case you want to look to the guarantor.

I may be in Philadelphia in the course of a few days when I shall take pleasure in stopping in to see you.

Very respectfully,

Spencer
